Greetings!

See below for important updates, reminders, and reviews regarding the Wisconsin Johne's Disease Control Program.

2010 Producer Reimbursement

Final Call For 2010 Invoices!!

Many producers eligible for 2010 reimbursement have not submitted invoices or have not submitted enough invoices to receive full reimbursement for which they are eligible.

For the 2010 calendar year, invoices submitted up to March 1, 2011 can be considered for residual funds - if available. If you have any clients who missed the February 1, 2011 deadline, they can still submit this paperwork for possible reimbursement through residual funds.

Don't Miss Out on Full 2010 Reimbursement!!

Johne's Disease Vaccine Availability - Update

Many of you have first-hand experience with the shortage of Mycopar, especially over the last few months.

The vaccine is currently on back order. Boehringer-Ingelheim is not able to predict when current orders will be released.

If you are in need of vaccine, please contact your Boehringer-Ingelheim representative for help in obtaining available vaccine from one of your colleagues.

NJEI Beef and Dairy Newsletters

The National Johne's Education Initiative has prepared their Johne's Disease - Beef and Johne's Disease - Dairy Winter 2011 newsletters. Please share these with your producers.

The latest editions review the Iceberg Phenomenon of Johne's disease in beef and dairy herds and how that contributes to the challenges of preventing and controlling this disease.

The current stage in new vaccine development research is discussed in both newsletters. The Dairy newsletter also includes a report on recent research examining the negative impact of Johne's disease on reproduction.

Please feel free to contact us at DATCPJohnes@wi.gov or 608-224-4893 with any questions about the Wisconsin Johne's Disease Control Program or suggestions for future newsletters.

Sincerely,
